

School of Zoology, Seminars, First semester 2019-2020

Seminars are held every Wednesday - convening at 13:00 and commencing at 13:15, for 45 minutes, in room 03, Sherman Building.

The seminar language is English. We encourage everybody to interact with the seminar speakers. If you wish to meet with the seminar speaker before or after their talk, please either contact them directly or through Ofir Levy.

Date	Speaker	Institute	Title
06/11/19	Dr. Michal Gruntman	Tel Aviv University	Should I stay or should I grow: developmental responses and decision making in plants
13/11/19	Prof. Kenny Breuer	Brown University	The roles of aerodynamics and Inertia during straight and maneuvering flapping flight
20/11/19	Prof. Noa Shenkar	Tel Aviv University	Choose your own ascidian adventure
27/11/19	Prof. Amos Bouskila	Ben-Gurion University	Decision making in the dark: what information can lead a chameleon to abandon without laying eggs a deep nesting site she started to excavate?
04/12/19	Prof. Dieter Ebert	University of Basel	Spatial divergences and local adaptation of the planktonic crustacean Daphnia
11/12/19	Prof. Yoni Belmaker	Tel Aviv University	The fate of fish: consequences of human impacts on fishes
18/12/19	Dr. Sabrina Engesser	Department of Comparative Linguistics, University of Zurich	More than babble - combinatoriality in babbler birds
25/12/19	Dr. Gili Greenbaum	Stanford University	Population Genetics & Eco-Evolutionary Dynamics in Structured Populations
01/01/20	Dr. Ofir Katz	Dead Sea-Arava Science Center	TBD
08/01/20	Dr. Netta Dorchin	Tel Aviv University	Unmitigated galls – herbivory promotes speciation in the mega-diverse gall midges

Date	Speaker	Institute	Title
15/01/20	Prof. Oren Levy	Bar-Ilan University	TBD
22/01/20	Prof. Tamar Lotan	University of Haifa	TBD
29/01/20	Dr. Ana Trakhtenbrot	Israel Ministry of Environmental Protection	Global biodiversity assessment - from data to action