

Zoology Seminar List for the second semester 2016
(every Wednesday, 14:15-15:00 in room 02)

Date	Speaker	Title	Affiliation
2/3/16	Stefan Greif	Bats sensing their environment - The long and short of it	Tel Aviv University
9/3/16	Amos Belmaker	The role of telomere length in the life-history and behavior of the Tree swallow (Tachycineta bicolor)	Cornell University
16/3/16	Liran Carmel	Paleo-epigenetics: what can we learn about human evolution from archaic DNA methylation maps?	Hebrew University
23/3/16	John De Long	Supply, demand, and the optimization of body size	University of Nebraska, Lincoln
30/3/16	Yehu Moran	The molecular evolution of venom and the use of Nematostella vectensis as an experimental model for venom research.	Hebrew University
6/4/16	Sharoni Shafir	Honey bees suffer cognitively from omega-3 deficiency and balance their pollen nutrition.	The faculty of agriculture, food and environment, Hebrew University
13/4/16	Nachum Ulanovsky	Neural basis of 3D goal-directed navigation in bats	Weizmann Institute of Science
4/5/16	Yossi Leshem	הציפורים הנודדות אינן יודעות גבולות- היבטים רב תחומיים	Tel Aviv University
18/5/16	Shane Blowes	Aggression, interference, prey risk and the functional response of coral-feeding butterflyfishes	Tel Aviv University
25/5/16	Yaron Ziv	Spatially-oriented biodiversity aspects in the agroecosystem of the Southern Judea Lowlands	Ben Gurion University of the Negev
1/6/16	Berry Pinshow	Ventilation of animal burrows: organs of extended physiology	Ben Gurion University of the Negev
8/6/16	Frederic Liberstat	Neuro-parasitology: neurochemical manipulation of host by a parasitoid wasp	Ben Gurion University of the Negev